

BRYAN ROJSUONTIKUL

BIOGRAPHY

Bryan Rojsuontikul was born in Washington D.C. and grew up in the central and northern Virginia area. He has a Bachelor of Fine Arts degree from George Mason University where he studied Art and Visual Technology with a concentration in Sculpture. He is primarily known for his duct tape works and installations that show influences of Minimalism, Abstract Expressionism, The Washington Color School, and Hard Edge Painting where he creates psychological color fields considered Hard Edge Sculpting.