Kaitlin Jencso: We Miss You
Saturday, May 8—Saturday, June 12, 2021

April 26, 2021

Washington, DC: Hamiltonian Artists is pleased to present Kaitlin Jencso's new installation, We Miss You, comprising nearly 2,000 images taken since January 1, 2020. Through scale and repetition, Jencso surveys a year of lost time. The installation features large-scale framed photographs and an overarching installation of snapshot-sized photographs—a comprehensive archive of communal and personal loss and longing.

At a distance, long rows and columns of photographs suggest a blur of landscape, a diary of monotony and confinement as days stretched into weeks and months on the Chesapeake Bay and in DC. Yet, the installation rewards close viewing as individual images betray the unending sense of disruption and transformation—and ultimately, endurance, and even beauty. The exhibition will be on view from Saturday, May 8 through Saturday, June 12, 2021.

Join us on Saturday, May 8, for an opening reception from 4–7pm. Viewing will be on a first-come-first-served basis and limited to 10 people at a time.
